The Fight for Freedom: 7 Organizations Combatting Human
This is the second installment in our series on human trafficking, in honor of National Human Trafficking Awareness Month. For background on this complex issue, check out our first installment: Human Trafficking: The Myths and the Realities. In the dialogue on human trafficking, it’s easy to feel overwhelmed by the statistics, the issues, and the politics.

The human services coalition was agreed that the funding would have to come from the Department of Corrections. The human service budget was already stretched to the limit, and state and local funding was being cut, rather than increased. But Department of Corrections policy stated that its responsibility ended at the moment of release.
