Model Business Corporation Act-ABA Business Law Section Corporate Laws Committee 2018-12-07 The 2016 revision to the Model Business Corporation Act is the first complete revision of the Model Act since 1984. The Model Business Corporation Act is a free-standing business corporation statute that can be enacted in its entirety by a state legislature. The Model Act is the basis for the business corporation statute in 32 states and the District of Columbia, and is the source for many provisions in the general corporation statutes of other states. It is an important and often cited reference for courts, lawyers, and scholars, as well as a useful source of study and discussion in law schools in the U.S. and elsewhere.

Handbook for the Conduct of Shareholders' Meetings-Tina S. Van Dam 2010 This updated edition provides concise and practical guidance on organizing and conducting shareholders' meetings for management, shareholders and counsel with primary focus on state law.

Corporate Director's Guidebook-American Bar Association. Committee on Corporate Laws 2007 The Corporate Director's Guidebook is recognized as the premier authority on the director's role and the board's functions. It is read, consulted and cited by board members, executives, lawyers and academics nationwide. Now available as a new Fifth Edition, the Guidebook completely updates its fourth edition published in 2004. This new Fifth Edition addresses recent effects the Sarbanes-Oxley Act has had in the corporate governance arena and its impact on the legal responsibilities of directors of public companies.

Qualifying to Do Business in Another State: The CSC® 50-State Guide to Qualification-Corporation Service Company 2020-05-29 Corporations intending to do business in states other than their home state must first determine whether they need to qualify to do business there, and if so, fulfill the qualification requirements. But qualification can be a complex and time-consuming task. Also, the consequences of making the wrong decision can be harsh, ranging from monetary penalties for a corporation to jail time for its officers and directors. To aid corporations in navigating these foreign waters, CSC developed Qualifying to Do Business in Another State: The CSC 50-State Guide to Qualification, a comprehensive toolbox to help you make the important decisions about qualifying in states where you plan to do business, complete with the documents required to implement that decision. This essential resource includes: Case illustrations and discussion of business activities that do or do not trigger qualification requirements updated for the 2020 Edition. Insight into whether certain Internet activities require qualification. Annotated qualification statutes for all 50 states and the District of Columbia updated for the 2020 Edition. Quick-reference charts on Activities That Do Not Constitute Doing Business and Consequences of Transacting Business without Authority.
