Knight of the Swan - Wikipedia
Elioxe follows the Dolopathos tale closest, but tells a courtlier version of the story, replacing the young lord who becomes lost with King Lothair, a ruler from beyond Hungary and the maiden with Elioxe. Lothair loses his way and stops by a fountain, and while asleep, is tended by Elioxe who comes out of the woodworks of the mountains. King Lothair decides to wed her, despite his ...

Enchanted forest - Wikipedia
In the "Dolopathos" variant of the Swan Children, a lord finds a mysterious woman - clearly a swan maiden or fairy - in an enchanted forest and marries her. Genevieve of Brabant, having rebuffed a would-be lover and found herself accused of adultery by him, escaped to the forest. This forest could easily bewilder the knights.
